

Please note location change (see below)

The American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene, PATH, and Malaria No More in cooperation with

Senator Sam Brownback (KS), Senator Richard Durbin (IL), Senator Patty Murray (WA), and Congressman Adam Smith (WA)

Invite you to

Next-Generation Tools for Malaria Control and Elimination

Wednesday, November 18, 2009

3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Location changed: Room 2200 Rayburn House Office Building

Welcome and introduction

Dr. Kent Campbell, Moderator

Director, Malaria Control and Evaluation Partnership in Africa (MACEPA), PATH

Chair, Advocacy and Policy Committee, American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene

Panelists

Malaria control progress and challenges

Dr. Elizabeth Chizema

Director of Technical Support Services, Zambian Ministry of Health

Battling malaria drug resistance

Dr. Alan Magill

Director, Experimental Therapeutics, Walter Reed Army Institute of Research

Chair, Clinical Groups, American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene

Malaria vaccine development: an overview of progress and next steps

Dr. Tom Monath

Partner, Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers

The first malaria vaccine? RTS,S enters the final stage of testing

Dr. Patricia W. Njuguna

Principal Investigator, Kilifi clinical trial site, KEMRI-Wellcome Trust Research Programme, Kenya

Refreshments will be served.

RSVP by Monday, November 16, to jlyons@path.org, or call 202.822.0033

